At the Davis.

Vaudeville and Photoplays.

There were well filled houses on Thursday at the Davis theatre for the change of bill in vaudeville and motion pictures, and the new numbers were received with enthusiasm, and made a well rounded out performance for the entertainment of those who attended. Some magic somewhat out of the ordinary was revealed in clever form by Whitney who mingled comedy and drama with his deceptive moves. Brown and Brown, a mixed comedy team, were the hit of the bill and brought out good hands, while Phil Morton as a character singing comedian was an able performer. The comedy quartet, called the Peerless Comedy Four, two blackface and two whiteface, were the hit of the bill and the encores they received strung the bill out until Manager Rial had had a hot night on the stage. The accompanying selection of films of photoplays full of entertainment.

Manager Carey was to announce one feature for his Saturday bill as he is to have motion pictures of the Yale-Harvard boat race on Thames. They were only taken last Friday and the Davis has them on their first showing.

Think Addie Burns' Petition Denied.

It is inferred by attorneys for Mrs. Addie Burns, who petitioned for pardon for the crime of statutory rape, for which she is serving a 12 to 30 years term, that the petition is denied. The inference comes from the fact that a single petition received favorable action on the part of the board and that other petitions will probably be denied in turn.
